Catholic Charities

Most people don't realize that each of the 170 Catholic Charities organizations across the country operate independently, reporting directly to the diocesan bishop to meet the unique needs of the poor and distressed within their communities. Founded in 1947, Catholic Charities of the Diocese of Arlington (CCDA) receives the majority of its funding from the diocesan parish communities to serve 21 counties and seven independent cities in northern Virginia. A faith-based agency anchored in a strong Catholic identity, CCDA provides assistance through a soup kitchen/food pantry, emergency shelter, emergency assistance, mental-health counseling, foster care, services for the elderly, immigrant assistance, services for the disabled, crisis pregnancy counseling, adoption services, parish social ministry, and prison ministry. Learn more about CCDA by subscribing to The Mission, the quarterly newsletter. Send your name, address and phone number to info@ccda.net or call (703) 841-3830.

Looking for Answers? Check out Encourage and Teach

How can you find out more about why Natural Family Planning can fit into God's plan for marriage, how a deacon feels about his upcoming priesthood ordination and how we can combat becoming indifferent to a secular, immoral climate? We invite you to take part in an online conversation on these and many more issues concerning our diocesan Church today. We know that conversations occur daily on the Web and recognize that the Catholic Church needs to be part of that dialogue. Thank you for reading and please tell your friends and family about this blog as well! You can find Encourage and Teach at www.encourageandteach.wordpress.com.

The Assumption Of The Blessed Virgin Mary August 15, 2010

First Reading: Revelations 11: 19a; 12: 1-6a, 10ab

There appeared a woman clothed with the sun, crowned with twelve stars, having the moon beneath her feet. Her newborn son went not to the huge red dragon, but to God and His throne. God's kingdom and the authority of his Anointed One have come.

Second Reading: 1 Corinthians 15:20-27

Paul reminds us that in Christ all is brought to life. At Christ's coming, all who belong to Christ will be part of the kingdom handed over to the Father. Christ will destroy all his enemies, the last one being death.

Gospel: Luke 1:39-56

When Mary greets Elizabeth, her child leaps in her womb. Elizabeth calls Mary blessed among women and commends her faith in the Lord's words. Mary praises God for His greatness and mercy, His concern for the lowly and the hungry, His promise of mercy to Abraham and his children forever.
