Thirty-second Sunday in Ordinary Time November 7, 2010

First Reading: 2 Maccabees 7:1-2, 9-14

A king tortured a Jewish family, and tried to make them violate the laws. They all refused to give in and violate the laws. All of the family members told the king they would rather die at his hands than surrender their hope of being resurrected by God.

Second Reading: 2 Thessalonians 2:16—3:5

Paul prays that the Thessalonians will be strengthened by God. He also asks them to pray that God's word will continue to spread, despite the persecution of Christians that was occurring at that time.

Gospel: Luke 20:27-38

Jesus encountered some Sadducees who did not believe in resurrection. Jesus refuted them by quoting Moses, who called the Lord the God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob. Jesus then said, "God is not the God of the dead but of the living. All are alive for him."

The Revised Edition of the Missale Romanum

Pope John Paul II issued a revised version of the Missale Romanum, (the Roman Missal), the ritual text for the celebration of the Mass, during the Jubilee year of 2000. Since that time, the work of translating this edition of the Roman Missal has been underway. The final sections of the English translation were approved by the Bishops of the United States, and the final recognitio of the complete text from the Holy See. The USCCB has prepared a website at www.usccb.org/romanmissal/ to help us prepare for the transition to this new translation of the revised Roman Missal. The website contains helpful resources for the faithful, for the clergy, and for parish and diocesan leaders.
