Ash Wednesday

Ash Wednesday, March 9th begins the season of Lent.

Ashes will be distributed at the following times:

7:30 AM Mass and 9:00 AM Mass
 and

12:00 PM, 6:30 PM, and 8:00 PM Liturgy of the Word (Holy Communion will not be distributed)

Redemptionis Sacramentum

On certain matters to be observed or to be avoided
 regarding the Most Holy Eucharist

The distribution of Holy Communion:

“[92.] Although each of the faithful always has the right to receive Holy Communion on the tongue, at his choice, [178] if any communicant should wish to receive the Sacrament in the hand, in areas where the Bishops’ Conference with the recognitio of the Apostolic See has given permission, the sacred host is to be administered to him or her. However, special care should be taken to ensure that the host is consumed by the communicant in the presence of the minister, so that no one goes away carrying the Eucharistic species in his hand. If there is a risk of profanation, then Holy Communion should not be given in the hand to the faithful. [179]

[107.] In accordance with what is laid down by the canons, “one who throws away the consecrated species or takes them away or keeps them for a sacrilegious purpose, incurs a latae sententiae excommunication reserved to the Apostolic See; a cleric, moreover, may be punished by another penalty, not excluding dismissal from the clerical state”. [194] To be regarded as pertaining to this case is any action that is voluntarily and gravely disrespectful of the sacred species. Anyone, therefore, who acts contrary to these norms, for example casting the sacred species into the sacrarium or in an unworthy place or on the ground, incurs the penalties laid down. [195] Furthermore all will remember that once the distribution of Holy Communion during the celebration of Mass has been completed, the prescriptions of the Roman Missal are to be observed, and in particular, whatever may remain of the Blood of Christ must be entirely and immediately consumed by the Priest or by another minister, according to the norms, while the consecrated hosts that are left are to be consumed by the Priest at the altar or carried to the place for the reservation of the Eucharist.[196]”

The Church in Central and Eastern Europe

The Collection for the Church in Central and Eastern Europe supports the essential and unmet pastoral needs of the church of the region. Poor Clare nuns in Poland received a central heating system through you previous generosity. Without the heat, the sisters had been falling ill frequently in the long, cold Eastern European winters, affecting their ministry of prayer. Please be generous on Ash Wednesday, March 9th, to the collection for the Church in Central and Eastern Europe where great needs remain. Visit www.usccb.org/nationalcollections to learn more about the important projects funded by the collection.
