The Youth

ST. WILLIAM OF YORK CATHOLIC SCHOOL

Memorial Day Observance

Friday, May 25th.

We had a beautiful ceremony to honor and pray for our fallen heroes. Student patriots were excellent: attentive, reverent, and solemn as they processed outside, prayed, recited the Pledge, sang the National Anthem (lead by Jim Ledford), and listened to Taps. Our Honor Guard was excellent! Everyone re-entered the building in a reverent silence and got right to work!

June 4th: Field Day

June 8th: Feast of St. William of York and our last day of school

Registrations now being accepted!

Volunteer and 2 Minivans needed for WorkCamp2012

Our Catholic Youth Organization teens have been working hard this school year to earn good grades, remain active in sports, volunteer around the Parish, and still perform the physical labor of fund raising for WorkCamp. Yet, they can't attend without chaperones. We still have this dilemma: we need another female chaperone for the week of June 23 through 29. Chaperones must be over 25, have a driver's license, and complete the annual OPCYP (Virtus) session. We also need to borrow 2 Minivans for the week. Previous van donors received their Van back in clean condition (we line the inside with drop cloth). This continues to be a tough year for fund raising and reaching volunteers so if you can help, please call Paul Miller (540) 288-9940. Thank-You!
