Election Resources from the Virginia Catholic Conference

As a people of faith and reason, Catholics are called to bring truth to political life and to practice Christ's commandment to "love one another." What principles should guide us as we vote and make political decisions? "Civic Responsibility: A Resource for Catholics in Virginia" is a two-sided Virginia Catholic Conference document drawing on the U.S. bishops' November 2007 statement Forming Consciences for Faithful Citizenship. This resource, in an easy-to-print two-sided format, is available at www.vacatholic.org, and includes seven key themes of Catholic social teaching to guide Catholics as they ponder their role in public policy decisions. Look for additional election resources in coming weeks, including a letter from Virginia's Bishops, and response charts to a 12-question survey of candidates for contested statewide and House of Delegates seats.
