How exactly should success be measured?

That was the question posed by Arlington Bishop Paul S. Loverde to young Catholics during the annual diocesan Young Adult Mass Aug. 4th at St. Philip Church in Falls Church. During his homily, the bishop asked young adults to contemplate the difference between achieving worldly success in the form of career advancement, financial wealth or high social status, and achieving success in the eyes of God. To read more on his homily or find out more about what is happening in the Arlington Diocese visit us online at www.catholicerald.com.
