It’s Our World on Mission World Mission Sunday

This weekend, we will accept donations in the boxes at all exits for World Mission Sunday. Your prayers and generous support offered to the Society for the Propagation of the Faith on World Mission Sunday directly benefit the mission Church—places like Mongolia and Zambia, Papua New Guinea and Indonesia, where young churches are growing, filled with zeal for the faith, but lacking resources for its outreach to families and those in need. It’s our world on mission. And through your prayers and assistance on World Mission Sunday, you too are “on mission” - supporting the loving service offered to the poor half a world away by priests, religious and lay leaders. Thank you! For more information visit us online at <http://www.onefamilyinmission.org/>

Pro-life? Support mothers in need to care for their babies!

Items can also be donated directly to the St. Matthew's Thrift Store on Monday to Friday from 10 AM to 3 PM and on Saturday from 9:30 AM to 2:30 PM. The Baby Closet is located at 10639 Courthouse Rd. in Fredericksburg. For information call (703) 841-3836.

The St. William of York Youth

St. William of York Catholic School

Academic Excellence * Personalized Attention * Authentic Catholic Culture

Your parish school is joining the Universal Church in making October the Month of the Rosary. Every day for October a class prays a decade of the Rosary at one of our parish Blessed Mother statues. Our prayers are especially calling for grace upon the Synod on the Family taking place in Rome and we are full of hope that the powerful Rosary will help promote clarity and commitment to the Truths about marriage and family so under attack from so many angles.

God bless,
Frank Nicely

Name the Saint!

My feast day is October 24th. I grew up in a poor family from Spain. Though we did not have a lot of money, we had a very rich faith life. My earliest memory is praying the Rosary with my family and going to Mass. I struggled for a long time to figure out what I wanted to do with my life, who I wanted to be. My profession progressed from weaver to priest to author and finally missionary. As a missionary I finally thought I had found what God wanted me to do with my life. I was sent to Cuba to be the archbishop and guide the Cuban Christians back to their faith. I worked tirelessly for 8 years before being called back home to Spain by the Queen. Back in Spain I founded the Missionary Sons of the Immaculate Heart of Mary and wrote more than 200 books and pamphlets. Because of my missionary work in Cuba I am called the spiritual father of Cuba. Who am I?

Twenty-ninth Sunday in Ordinary Time

First Reading: Isaiah 53:10-11

Isaiah speaks of how the Servant of God will have to give his life up for the sins of other people. Because of this suffering the Servant will receive eternal life for himself and all the people whose sins are forgiven because of him.

Second Reading: Hebrews 4:14-16

Jesus is considered to be the new high priest and mediator between God and his people. Fortunately, Jesus has experienced the same temptations as other people, and so he has more tolerance of our weaknesses.

Gospel: Mark 10:35-45

Two of the disciples ask Jesus that they be allowed to sit at his right and left side when he comes into his glory. Jesus explains that they should not be concerned with their position. Instead they should concern themselves with serving others just as Jesus was planning to serve many in giving his own life for their sins.
