What does the Church teach about Immigration?

Week 2 of 8 from Bishop Burbidge

The Catechism of the Catholic Church states: "The more prosperous nations are obliged, to the extent they are able, to welcome the foreigner in search of the security and the means of livelihood which he cannot find in his country of origin... Immigrants are obliged to respect with gratitude the material and spiritual heritage of the country that receives them, to obey its laws and to assist in carrying civic burdens" (2241). Not every individual American is prosperous, but our nation is indeed among the most prosperous in the world, and so we are called not to keep our blessings to ourselves, but to share our goods with our brothers and sisters.

Religious Education

Name the Saint!

My feast day is June 13th. I was born and raised in Lisbon, Portugal, but I ended up spending most of my adult life in Italy. Growing up in a wealthy family I was able to go to the cathedral school. I studied Latin and theology. While living in the abbey after becoming a priest I met a group of friars. Watching their solitary, devout way of life I knew I wanted to join them. I asked permission and was granted permission. After that I was part of the Franciscan Order. As a Franciscan I travelled to teach others about the Catholic faith and God. I am very well-known for my preaching abilities. While in Italy I became sick and never recovered. I am a Doctor of the Church and patron saint of lost things. Who am I?

ANSWER: St. Anthony of Padua

The Most Holy Trinity

First Reading: Exodus 34:4b-6, 8-9

The Lord appears to Moses on Mount Sinai and proclaims to him that he Lord is a "merciful God...slow to anger and rich in kindness and fidelity."

Second Reading: 2 Corinthians 13:11-13

Paul exhorts the Corinthians to live in peace and harmony, and for the first time, invokes the Blessed Trinity.

Gospel: John 3:16-18

In this beautiful passage, Jesus tells Nicodemus that God loved his people so much that he "gave his only son." Jesus reveals to Nicodemus that anyone who believes in him will not die but will enjoy life with him for all eternity.
